Open Access and Licensing Options

This journal offers the authors the option to select either conventional publishing or Open Access (Author Select) publishing for their manuscripts. The Author Select option has a USD 3500 fee and provides free online access to the published article to users indefinitely. With this option, authors hold the copyright to their work, which will be published under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) license.

Please select how you wish to publish your article from the options below:

Open Access as part of an Institutional agreement. Our system has detected that your manuscript's affiliated institution has an agreement with AIP Publishing to support Open Access publication in this journal. If your article is accepted for publication while the agreement is active, your article will be published Open Access, and the fee for Open Access publication will be covered under the terms of the agreement.
