Our Story

AIP Publishing is the not-for-profit publishing arm of the American Institute of Physics (AIP). For more than 80 years, AIP has been one of the world's leading publishers in the physical sciences, and our mission remains to inspire and inform the scientific community with research and resources of outstanding value, relevance, and quality.

We publish 28 peer-reviewed journals from AIP Publishing and our publishing partners, including 5 gold open access titles and 1,700 volumes of conference proceedings. Our journals cover the breadth of the physical sciences, and are highly ranked in terms of citations.

Our Publishing Partners

Through collaboration with our publishing partners, AIP Publishing can support a broader community of physical scientists around the world and bring high-quality research to the widest global audience.

As a society publisher, we are committed to providing our publishing partners with the strategic, operational, and tactical support needed to advance their goals and grow in today's competitive market. Every society and every journal benefit from our individual attention, collaborative approach, professional expertise and customer focus. Our size is one of our key strengths—we are large enough to deliver reliable and tested systems as well as global reach, yet small enough to provide personal and dedicated service.

Our Services

AIP Publishing is committed to the success and vitality of our publishing partners. We have a team of professionals dedicated to support our partner publications throughout each product life cycle.

“AIP Publishing’s team of publishing professionals provided the products, tools, and expertise that enhanced the American Vacuum Society’s (AVS) publishing portfolio. We have such confidence in our partnership that we signed a five-year partnership agreement, thus allowing us to continue working together toward the successful implementation of our long-term strategic publishing goals.”

Yvonne Towse
Managing Director, AVS

Our Industry Involvement

Collective effort on industry initiatives, on behalf of AIP and our publishing partners, helps us to keep pace with rapid, constant change in a digital world and shape the future of physical science communications. AIP Publishing’s participation in these industry initiatives allows us and our publishing partners to have a “seat at the table” and take a thought leadership position. AIP Publishing is a leader in efforts to improve and evolve the author experience, peer review, metadata, archiving, and bibliometrics, as well as expand access to research through Open Science.
